

Negroes Jeer Mayor, Cleric at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — An angered Mayor Richard J. Daley and a Negro church leader were jeered from the speaker's platform at a Fourth of July rally which gathered an estimated 20,000 persons on Chicago's downtown lakefront.

Daley, boss of the Democratic party in Illinois, led a 3 1/2 mile "Freedom March" through the downtown area sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The march and rally were arranged in connection with the NAACP's national convention. The convention sessions, suspended for Independence Day, resume today.

More than 100 whites and Negroes waved anti-Daley placards as they rushed down the aisles to the platform. The placards reflected claims of segregation in Chicago schools and ghetto conditions in Negro sections of the city.

"Tokenism must go," they shouted each time the mayor attempted to speak. "Down with ghetto! Daley must go!"

The din raised by the demonstrators, a number of them bearded, forced Daley to stop after he said: "We recognize your problem, and are trying to do something about it."

But "flustered, red-faced and angry, the deep-voiced Daley gave up after several starts on his welcoming address and thundered into the microphone. "I recognize a contingent of the Republican party is here," then walked off.

The Negro church leader, the Rev. J. H. Jackson, also was shouted down. He is president of the National Baptist Convention which claims 5 million Negro members.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., was enthusiastically cheered before and after his speech, although he urged a policy of moderation and non-violence such as that practiced by the late Mohandas Gandhi in India.

Hecklers called Dr. Jackson, "Uncle Tom" when he tried to speak. He had addressed the convention earlier, an aide said, and suggested Negroes should begin a two-month quiet period without demonstrations.

The demonstrations, along with some minor heckling of Roy Wilkins, a Negro and executive secretary of the NAACP, appeared to be expressions of impatience over the pace of integration.

Only New York and four Southern states have more Negroes than Illinois. More than 810,000 of the state's 1.1 million Negroes live in Chicago.

Not Much Work Before a Holiday — and Absolutely None on the Day After

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Few people get much work done the day before a holiday. But on the day after a holiday practically no work at all is done in the average business office.

It is just a long eight-hour coffee break as the sunburned, mosquito-bitten survivors gather around and tell each other tall stories of what happened to them.

You wouldn't think it possible so many strange things could happen to so small a group of people on a single holiday in a civilized country.

"I was just lying there reading a book by Franz Kafka," says the homely young secretary, "When I saw this fellow struggling in the surf. So I swam out and pulled him ashore, and when I bent down to give him mouth-to-mouth resuscitation he reached up, took my hand, and asked me for a date every night next week. And guess what—he's the son of a wealthy lawyer."

The lazy office boy limps in with a bandaged ankle, and explains: "Twisted it sliding into home plate with the winning run in the last of the ninth. Guess I'll be a little slow in distributing the mail for the next few weeks."

"When I looked through my binoculars I couldn't believe my eyes," remarks the office bird watcher. "There were two giant fluffy-crested purple egrets. The Audubon Society says there haven't been any seen in this vicinity since 1877."

"I lifted a high one from the third tee," says the golf bug. "It looked a bit wide, but when it landed it beamed a squirrel, bounced to the left and rolled into the cup for a hole in one. I'm having the squirrel stuffed to prove it."

"I was stuck in a 15-mile highway tie-up for seven hours," says the senior salesman. "Four women gave birth before they could get to a hospital. My wife and I helped one lady deliver triplets, and she's so grateful she's going to name two of the babies after us."

"She plans to call the third child 'Jammy'—on account of her arrival during this traffic jam."

'Chute Fails and Hobby Diver Dies

UNION CITY, Ind. (AP) — A young electrician, who parachuted as a hobby, jumped in an exhibition before 5,000 persons at a Fourth of July celebration and died as his chute failed to open.

The jump occurred half an hour ahead of schedule, and only a few of the spectators in Harter Park were aware that Evan Hall, 28, of Union City was killed. He fell in a pasture half a mile away.

Top Clerics Are Held in Park Dispute

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief executive officer of the United Presbyterian Church, and other Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen were arrested when they attempted to integrate an amusement park near Baltimore in a massive Independence Day demonstration.

At least 36 clergymen were among the 223 whites and Negroes arrested. The police docket in suburban Woodlawn, where the Gwynn Oak amusement park is located, read like a religious who's who.

All were charged under Maryland's trespass law which permits the owner of a business to refuse entrance to any person he wishes. Sixty-nine demonstrators who had to be carried from the park also were charged with disorderly conduct.

To the hundreds of patrons who had flocked to the 68-acre park for a July 4th picnic complete with roller-coaster rides, ferris wheel and carnival barkers, the demonstration was just added excitement. Most ignored the integrated protesters, but a few stopped to jeer as police walked and carried them to commandeered school buses and patrol wagons.

"Take 'em all. Lock 'em up and throw away the key. It looks like a revival meeting," were among the catcalls. A few cherry bombs were tossed, but for the most part everything was orderly.

Integrationists responded by singing freedom songs and waving placards stenciled with such messages as "Freedom Now."

Hearings are scheduled tonight before the Woodlawn trial magistrate. Some of the demonstrators—perhaps all—may request postponements.

More than 200 of the nearly 400 who took part in the protest came from New York City and Philadelphia in buses.

Among the prominent churchmen rounded up by more than 50 Baltimore County police officers assigned to the park were:

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief executive officer of the United Presbyterian Church; Bishop Daniel Corrigan of the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church; the Rev. Roderick French of the World Council of Churches; the Rev. William Sloan Coffin, Yale University chaplain. All but Coffin are from New York.

Prominent Maryland clergymen booked at the Woodlawn Police Station included Dr. Furman L. Templeton, chairman of the National Presbyterian Interracial Council and executive director of the Baltimore Urban League; the Rev. Joseph Connolly, a Catholic priest and co-chairman of the Baltimore Interfaith Committee for Human Rights, and Rabbi Morris Lieberman, co-chairman of the Interfaith Committee for Human Rights.

3 Killed in Convict's Dash for Freedom

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — A state patrolman's 200-yard rifle shot from behind a hedgerow ended a killing spree by a convict whose Independence Day bid for freedom left three persons dead, one wounded and four hostages thankful they survived.

One of the hostages, plucky 14-year-old Richard Hale, emptied a pistol at the dying killer after the patrolman's bullet tore through the prisoner's chest as he attempted to dig a foxhole in a pecan field.

Melvin Allen Weaver, 23, a convicted robber from Franklin, Ohio, died holding a gun and a stick he had been using to dig the foxhole. He left behind him a trail of death and threats of death.

It began in a hospital in the quiet town of Marianna in the northwest Florida panhandle. It ended 120 miles away in a pecan grove near this southwest Georgia town with Patrolman Robert Benson's rifle shot.

Benson, 28, is a veteran of the Korean War who won an expert marksman's badge in the Army. "It was just luck, but I don't think he ever knew what hit him," he said. "I don't believe the boy killed him. I think this rifle shot did."

"I didn't even raise up. I just poked it through the bushes and the fence and shot. The boy was standing only about three or four feet away and Weaver had guns all around him. It was just luck that I hit him right."

Weaver was sentenced to a life term Tuesday on his guilty plea to robbing a service station operator of $19 and severely beating him with a car generator.

Wednesday night, he set fire to a mattress in his jail cell at Marianna. He and three other prisoners were taken to a hospital for treatment of minor burns.

Early Thursday, Deputy Alan Finch, 43, escorted Weaver to the bathroom. The burly prisoner overpowered Finch, wrestled his gun away and shot him in the abdomen. Finch died.

Weaver returned to the hospital room where Deputy Aron Creel, 40, guarded the other prisoners. He shot Creel twice in the face and head and took his gun. Creel died.

Hubert Mayo of Marianna, visiting his ailing father, heard the gunfire, stepped out of his father's room, and was shot in the back of the head by Weaver. Mayo died.

The other three prisoners refused to accompany Weaver when he left the hospital.

The 200-pound prisoner, a barrel-chested man, crossed the street to a house and at gunpoint forced Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Sangaree and their young daughter to accompany him in their car.

Fifty miles to the north, in the vicinity of Donaldsonville and Colquitt, Ga., the fleeing killer released his unarmed hostages. He kept their car.

Continuing his mad dash, he eluded a state patrolman but two Georgia Bureau of Investigation officers sighted him near Smithville, Ga. They pursued in a wild chase and he fired at them through the car's rear window.

Rail Strike Deadline Is Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz called on both sides today to make a last-ditch effort to settle the railroad work rules dispute by collective bargaining. He asked for an answer by Sunday.

If no agreement is reached to continue talks, the railroads already have said they will put controversial New York rules in effect after midnight Wednesday.

Union officials have warned this would bring an immediate strike. Wirtz, in a news conference after a 30-minute meeting with the negotiators for the railroads and five operating unions, indicated that, if his proposal was rejected, the administration would seek legislation immediately.

Wirtz proposed a temporary solution for two key issues in the dispute, the question of removal of some 40,000 firemen from freight and yard trains, and the make-up of the crews of all trains aside from those riding in the car.

In both issues, he proposed acceptance of the recommendations of a presidential emergency board in May as a basis for a two-year trial.

During this two years, a new group with equal representation from unions and the railroads would study the question.

To iron out details of the temporary agreement, Wirtz called for a 20-day negotiating period beyond the Wednesday deadline, with both sides agreeing that James J. Reynolds, assistant secretary of labor, would make a binding decision on any issue not settled during the period.

A strike would affect virtually all U.S. railroads and could idle up to 700,000 workers.

The dispute centers around the announced intention of the railroads to institute new work rules, doing away with thousands of jobs which they say are not necessary. They call such jobs "featherbedding."

The unions involved—representing about 200,000 workers—claim present work rules must be maintained for safe operation of the trains.

They had warned they would strike immediately if the rules changes were put into effect. And a rail labor spokesman has reported the unions have been notified the rules changes will become effective July 11, the day after the bargaining deadline.

Kennedy has warned both sides that if they are unable to reach an agreement by the deadline he will ask Congress for "new legislation which will protect the public against a loss of its rail transport."

Involved are three AFL-CIO unions—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, the Switchmen's Union and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; and two independent unions—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.

Before he left for the weekend emergency board to investigate a wage-hour dispute between the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and the Pullman Co. This dispute is not connected with the "featherbedding" issue.

Creation of the board defers for at least 60 days a strike called for last Monday night by the porters, who are seeking higher pay and shorter hours. More than two dozen railroads are involved.

Cattleman Speaker for Poultrymen

"Why we moved to Arkansas from California," will be the subject of a cattleman's talk before the Southwest Arkansas Poultry Producers Association at Bodcaw Monday night. The speaker will be Arthur Strech of Ozan, who with his brother-in-law, Harry McKillip, and the latter's partner, moved to Hempstead county this past year bringing with them 200 head of registered Angus cattle.

The meeting will be held in the school cafeteria beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Another feature on the program will be a panel discussion on summertime poultry management problems. There will also be a report on the reorganization of the N. W. Poultry Association which will now be known as the Arkansas Broiler and Egg Producers Association. It will be statewide in its activities. All interested broiler and egg producers, also cattleman, are invited to attend this meeting.

Industrial Days Set Up for Hope

The Hope Chamber of Commerce will pay tribute to existing local industry during the month of July. This will take several forms:

First, there will be industry appreciation banquet Monday, July 8, at 12 noon at the Barlow Hotel. At this event, which will be a combined meeting of Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and Civitans, the American Legion will present the Chamber of Commerce an award for veteran placement in local industry. This will be presented by Walter Schrader, State Legion Commander, to the Hope Chamber and local E. S. D. office.

Local industries will plan product displays in downtown stores starting July 8, showing products manufactured in Hope and their impact on local economy.

Starting Wednesday, July 10, businessmen and local citizens will be invited to show their appreciation to our local industries by going on a visitation tour. These will start in downtown Hope and go to various industrial areas.

The first will be to Oakhaven to visit five plants. Others will be held on the 17th, 24th, and 31st of July. The time will be announced Monday. If you appreciate the nearly 1,400 jobs we have in local industries, we trust you will show it by going on these tours and see what our industry really means to us.

Col. Frank Malone to Germany

NELLIS AFB, Nev. — Colonel Frank C. Malone of Hope, Ark., is being reassigned to Spangdahlem AB, Germany, following his graduation from the United States Air Force training course for F-105 Thunderchief pilots here.

Colonel Malone, already a rated pilot on flying status, now is qualified as "combat ready" in the advanced supersonic jet fighter.

The colonel is the son of Mrs. Frank C. Malone of 522 Fourth St., Hope, and is a graduate of Emmett (Ark.) High School. He attended Magnolia A&M College.

Colonel Malone, a veteran of more than 22 years of active military service, previously was assigned to the Joint Staff in the Pentagon.

His wife, Lucille, is the daughter of Mrs. Wash Hutson of Hope.

Zada Ross, Spring Hill, Dies at 85

Miss Zada Ross, 85, died Thursday at her home near Spring Hill following a lengthy illness.

She is survived by two brothers, Walter Ross and Nova Ross, and one sister, Mrs. D. Butler, all of Hope, and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be at 3 o'clock Friday at the Anderson Baptist Church near Spring Hill with burial in the Anderson cemetery Smith Funeral Home of Stamps is in charge.

Was There a Nazareth? Ancient Hebrew Writing on Stone May Be Clue

By CARL C. CRAFT
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Was Jesus from Nazareth? Indeed, was there a Nazareth in his time, or was it invented to satisfy pilgrims to the place where Jesus lived?

A workman's accidental discovery of a fragment of a Hebrew inscription on marble may help answer these questions. The fragment is being studied by the Israel Department of Antiquities of Hebrew University.

Shalom Attiah noticed the chunk of marble in his wheelbarrow at an excavation site at Caesarea, Israel, on the Mediterranean Coast.

Dr. Jerry Vardaman, archaeology professor at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, who had charge of the digging, recalled that workmen had been told to be watchful because some searchers were growing disheartened and careless near the end of the season.

The seminary has a copy of the fragment, which is said to add to evidence that Nazareth did exist in the time of Jesus. The inscription on the marble was part of a list of Jewish priestly families and the towns where they lived in Galilee.

Authorities place the fragment in the period of the late second to the fourth century, A.D. Dr. Vardaman said the inscription contains the earliest known Hebrew references to Nazareth.

Many scholars have contended that Jesus lived in Chorazin or Capernaum. The Name "Nazareth" as applied to Jesus sometimes is said to refer to a pre-Christian religious group.

Skepticism on the subject was noted in the Encyclopedia Britannica: "It is very doubtful whether the beautiful mountain village of Nazareth itself was really the dwelling place of Jesus. No such town as Nazareth is mentioned in the Old Testament, in Josephus, or in the Talmud."

Dr. Vardaman said he is certain some sort of settlement existed at the present site of Nazareth in Jesus' time.

He said recent excavations there—along with the prize find of the fragment—have produced strong archaeological support for the scriptural statement that Jesus was from Nazareth.

DeGaulle, Adenauer Disagree

By CARL HATMAN

BONN, Germany (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer failed to agree today on what kind of relations the Common Market should have with Britain, West German officials reported.

The officials, emerging from a three-hour conference of top West German and French leaders, reported that the meeting resulted only in a delay of the problem.

They added that no effective agreement could be reached, either, on farm prices — another difficulty that has been holding up progress in the Common Market.

De Gaulle was scheduled to leave late this afternoon for Paris.

Adenauer was smiling as he saw De Gaulle to his car, but other ministers looked discouraged. High hopes had been set on this meeting.

Werner Schwarz, West German agriculture minister, said new studies would have to be made on measures proposed to solve farm problems.

"Anything further has to be done in Brussels," he added.

Foreign ministers and agriculture ministers of six Common Market countries are due to meet there next week.

De Gaulle and Adenauer met on this second day of the French president's visit to discuss the kind of relations the West European market should have with Britain, blocked by a French veto from entering the Common Market.

The U.S. government was keenly interested in the discussion. It wants Britain admitted to the six-nation Common Market to keep it in close Atlantic partnership with the United States.

De Gaulle prefers to keep the Common Market a closed corporation, dominated by France. He envisions a third power equal to both the United States and the Soviet Union.

The meetings today were the windup of two days of French-West German talks, first conference under the two nations treaty of cooperation designed to end their long enmity.

There was no indication that Adenauer and Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard had made any progress in reconciling De Gaulle's "third force" concept with President Kennedy's desire for a close transatlantic partnership. But there also was no indication that De Gaulle had swung Adenauer and Erhard from their espousal of Kennedy's view.

The only new agreement announced after the first day's talks was for an exchange of language-teaching officers and soldiers in small groups.

Last January De Gaulle vetoed Britain's application to join France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg in the Common Market.

The French have held out against close ties of any kind between the Common Market and the British.

Gate Open and Buffalo Escape

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Someone opened a gate to the Golden Gate Park buffalo paddock Thursday and eight burly bison took the opportunity to head for freedom.

A posse of policemen in squad cars tried vainly to round them up. Then somebody thought of the police department's dog patrol.

Sgt. Gus Brummen and his dog, Tonka, answered a hasty summons for help. Within 20 minutes, Tonka had the unruly critters back in the paddock.

Texarkanian Ambushed and Slain

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — An attempted robbery thwarted accidentally by an encyclopedia salesman ended in death today for James Henry Wallace, 30 of Dallas, Tex.

Wallace, shot once in the head with a rifle bullet, died early this morning on the way to a Shreveport, La., hospital.

Texarkana police have issued a four-state alert for two unidentified Negroes in the slaying. Police Chief Max Tackett said "several" persons already had been questioned.

The shooting occurred at a Texarkana intersection after Wallace and the encyclopedia salesman, Byron Salsman, 24, of Tulsa, Okla., had pursued the Negroes in an automobile for a mile.

Tackett said the chase started at the home of Henry Hooks, a grocery store operator and Wallace's father-in-law. Three shots were fired at the white man with a pistol before the chase began.

Tackett said Salsman was waiting at Hooks' home to sell him some encyclopedias when he noticed a slow-moving white station wagon circle the block twice and park across the street from Hooks' home.

One of the Negroes got out of the car, Tackett said, and Salsman, thinking the men were after him, hid under a shrub about eight feet in diameter.

Tackett said the Negro, apparently not having seen Salsman, crawled under the other side of the shrub, "apparently to wait for Hooks," who normally returned home from his store about 10 p.m. Tackett said the Negro carried a club.

Salsman slipped out of the shrub and called police from a nearby home.

About this time, Tackett said Hooks and Wallace who was visiting Hooks drove into Hooks' driveway in separate vehicles and Salsman walked back to tell them about the man hiding under the shrub.

Salsman told Wallace to shine the headlights of his car on the bush, Tackett said, and the Negro stepped out and attempted to block his path. Tackett said, and the Negro fired one shot from a pistol at each of them. No one was hit.

The Negro got in his car, Tackett said, and Wallace and Salsman gave chase. They overtook the car at the intersection Tackett said a Negro got out of the automobile with a rifle and fired one shot through the windshield from a distance of about 30 paces. The bullet struck Wallace in the upper part of the head.

Chinese in Russia for a Showdown

By REINHOLD ENSZ

MOSCOW (WAP) — A Communist Chinese delegation arrived in Moscow today for a showdown battle with Premier Khrushchev over control of world communism.

The outcome could determine the future of hundreds of millions of persons for years to come. The Kremlin conference was the most dramatic peak in communism's quarrels, for overshadowing the 1948 split between Stalin and President Tito of Yugoslavia.

Despite a last-minute exchange of angry charges, the Kremlin saw the head of its delegation to the airport to meet the Chinese. He is Mikhail Suslov, 60, member of the powerful party Presidium. With him was a large delegation of party officials.

The Chinese delegation was led by the Chinese Central Committee general secretary, Teng Hsiao-ping, 60.

The delegation arrived about a half hour late aboard a big Soviet TU104 jet airliner.

Also on hand were nearly 200 Chinese residents of Moscow, headed by the smiling Chinese ambassador, Pan Tzu-Ji.

Mounting charges and counter-charges between Moscow and Peking apparently doomed chances of any real accord between the Communist giants.

At issue is Premier Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence with the West versus Ma Tse-tung's insistence that war and violent revolution are necessary to achieve Communist domination of the world.

The basic quarrel is who is to have the right to interpret the principles laid down by Lenin, founder of the first Communist state—Russia.

The Soviet Union accused the Chinese of slander, meddling and aggravating relations on the eve of the talks.

A blistering statement by the Soviet Communist party Central Committee denounced the Chinese for unleashing a 30,000-world blast on June 14 against Premier Khrushchev, then trying to spread the letter's contents throughout Russia after the Soviets refused to publish it.

The Russians said Chinese crews of the Peking-Moscow express dropped off pamphlets and leaflets along the line and read them over the train's loudspeaker system.

Viewed through Soviet eyes, such actions have the flavor of a call for revolution in the Soviet Union.

Red China lashed back with a protest to the Soviet Embassy in Peking for the expulsion of five Chinese from Moscow for distributing the letter. The protest called the Soviet ouster unreasonable.

...A new way to buy gasoline and save up to 3¢ a gallon

5 grades...5 prices...blended in the gas pump
...blended exactly to fit your car

Half of all U. S. car owners buy the wrong grade of gasoline.

Many waste money buying premium octane power their cars can't use. Others risk engine damage by using a regular grade which causes knock and loss of power.

Why is this true? Until now, car owners had to choose between only two or three grades of gasoline—which cannot meet the wide variety of octane requirements of cars on the road today.

But now you can buy Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline in any one of five different octane ratings... at five different prices... one of them exactly right for your car.

Each blend is top-quality Lion gasoline with the exclusive Lionite® additive that prevents pre-ignition knock or ping... keeps spark plugs clean... improves engine breathing by keeping the carburetor clean.

How Lion Octane-Blending works: The special pump draws two separate fuels from two underground tanks, feeding them through a hose-within-a-hose in the exact proportion for your car.

The lower the octane rating your car needs, the more you save... 1¢, 2¢ even 3¢ a gallon! And Lion is the only place you can get it.

Stop in at your Lion Dealer's. He'll help you select the correct blend for your car. Change to Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline, and keep the change!

THE CONSEQUENCES OF A MOTHER'S MISPLACED GUIDANCE

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am a 16-year-old girl who has always been surrounded by wealth and an over-protective mother. As a consequence I long to be one of "the crowd."

To others my age I'm odd, never having been allowed to mix. They eye me as if I were a pariah. Maybe I am. A few months ago Mother allowed me to go to a well-chaperoned party. One boy singled me out and danced every dance with me. I was floating on cloud nine.

He asked to take me home. The chaperon said yes. It was a beautiful, warm spring night. He put his arm around me — well, the rest is history. Now he refuses to marry me.

My mother must suspect the worst for she reads all my mail, eavesdrops on my telephone conversations and insists that she, or my Nana who's been with me since I was born, accompany me wherever I go. Mother has a dreadful temper we've never been close. How shall I tell her of my predicament? If my father were alive it might be easier. When I do anything wrong Mother says I'm like him. Please print this instead of writing me personally.

—A Girl in Desperate Trouble.

Dear Desperate: Complete maturity, I believe, is the willingness to accept fully the consequences of one's actions. Often it comes suddenly and painfully — overnight, in your case. The agony you are now experiencing is the price that most females must pay for a few moments of unbridled "rapture."

Never mind now whose fault it may have been. You should not pass the blame to your mother. When you let physical desire overcome reason and morality, you alone are accountable, not your mother, or your boy friend. Perhaps your mother's overprotectiveness has something to do with it. Perhaps it was the boy's persuasiveness. I n the last analysis, though, it was your lack of self-control that caused your predicament.

It's never too late to face up to life. Some do it early; others late. Your chance is right now. From this moment on — and I do mean thinking — should be your unborn child. The future is more important than the past, so your course of action must be governed by what is best for the child, rather than by your mother's "dreadful temper." Please bear in mind that in a situation like this your mother's reason may prevail over her emotions, and she may rise to the occasion by revealing herself in an entirely new light. Don't underestimate her. She may prove to be your staunchest ally.

But regardless of your mother, panicked them on the trip and remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Lee Garland, Crawfordville, Ind., and Mrs. L. O. Krueger, Greeley, Colo., have been recent visitors in DeAnn and attended the reunion of the Class of 1929 on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williamson, Randy and Gregg of Ft. Worth are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hartfield. They will return to their home this weekend.

Miss Josie Anderson of Little Rock is visiting Mrs. Coral Jamison and Ray Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Fowler and Carol Ann of Washington, D. C. are the house guest of Mrs. Fowler's mother, Mrs. B. G. Southward.

you should consult your doctor and minister and be prepared to follow their advice. One of them will help you inform your mother and in deciding the future of the child. Don't let the fear of condemnation steer you away from the firm resolve to be guided by rational judgment rather than by irrational emotion.

You need not feel alone in coping with your problem. In addition to your doctor and minister, there are many social welfare agencies whose chief function is to counsel unmarried mothers. Their addresses and telephone numbers can be found in the yellow pages of most telephone books. I would be very foolish and unrealistic to give you a verbal pat on the back and say that everything will be all right. It won't be. Regret will leave a scar.

Dear Helen: My mother, an alert, active and altogether sweet human being, finds time on her hands, living as she does in a rural area. She wants to be busy and to earn a little extra money. What would you suggest her doing? She learns quickly and is adaptable. May your column and adapted advice continue to open new doors and give light to your many readers. —A Devoted Son

Dear Devoted Son: Your mother should first determine and assess her aptitude and interests, then try to correlate them with the needs of her community. The money-making possibilities for an "alert, active and altogether sweet human being," in a rural area, range from raising chickens to raising children. She could sell eggs or she could take care of human chicks. For other ideas, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Turn Your Spare Time Into Cash."

Dear Helen: I am a 16-year-old school girl in love with a boy who wants me to marry him in June, 1964. He gave me an engagement ring last November and has a very good job. I shan't be graduated for two more years and do not intend to quit before then. Will marriage and school mix? —Bubbles but not quite answered your own question. I am thankful for your determination to graduate from high school, for a high school diploma represents the very minimum educational equipment one needs to tackle the complex problems of modern society. I also believe that the attainment of this piece of parchment is a full time job.

Dear Bubbles: You've almost,

Discuss your dilemma with your high school guidance counselor. Your school may have a ruling against married students. It has only been relatively recently that colleges have permitted them. If I were you, I'd return the en-agement ring, telling your boy friend that you'll reconsider it in two years. A lot can happen to both of you during that time.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"Either she doesn't like us, or she's made of ice."

I HATE VIOLENCE
By ED LACY

Well, sir it's like this—I can't stand violence. There's the arrogance of a dictator behind the senseless violence today. Makes me blow straight up to see these cocky punks, nursed on TV violence, who think nothing of walking over people.

No sir, they never bother me. I'm old and may look plump, but it's all solid muscle. In my time I've played pro football, boxed and wrestled for money. I was good, not a mark on my face. But kids today, all they see on their screens is murder, beatings, even play with toys of violence. I'll make it short, didn't mean to lecture but merely show you how I feel about jerks who worship "toughness" as though it's a virtue in itself.

Being retired I take walks to pass time, and I stopped in this luncheonette for coffee. Place was empty except for a young woman having a sandwich down the counter. These two punks walked in, ordered hamburgers. You know the type—light pants, leather jackets. Can't call them lazy, they must put in eight hours a day getting that wave into their oily hair! They deliberately sat on either side of the girl. That was okay, you expect some horsing around in young folks.

Then they started talking back and forth across the girl. I suppose they thought they sounded clever. One said something like,

"Jimmy, if we were each a slice of bread, with this cute babe between us we'd make the most best sandwich in the world!"

Pure corn. This went on with the girl not paying any mind.

Al grinned over his hamburger, said, "Either she don't like us, or she's made of ice?"

"Let's see if water freezes on her," Jimmy said, dipping a finger into his glass of water, flicking a drop at the girl.

She turned and snapped, "You stop that!"

Jimmy laughed like a loon. "Look, she's alive, has a temper! Looks good when she's bothered, don't she Al?"

"Yeah," Al said, and he flicked a drop of water at the girl.

See what I mean?

The girl put some money on the counter, stood up to leave. But Al grabbed her hand, asked, "Leaving, beautiful?"

"We don't even know you, yet," Jimmy said, sending another drop of water at her.

The girl got so mad she threw her glass of water into Jimmy's face! Al, who was still holding her other hand, chuckled, but Jimmy was boiling. His slick hair was wet. He jumped up slapped the girl, called her names. She began to cry and I went over to them. This Al lets go of the girl, looks me up and down with his stupid eyes, asked, "Looking for a bruise, old man?"

"Butt out, Pops!" Jimmy said, still trying to set his hair.

The girl is weeping and me, imagine two punks talking like that to a man my age? I belted Jimmy in the stomach, turned as

New Crisis for British in Spy Case

LONDON (AP)—A new security storm swirled around Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today following disclosures that a diplomat he once exonerated really was a Soviet agent.

Opposition Laborites primed their parliamentary guns to harass Macmillan over the case of Harold Philby, a diplomat-turned-journalist, who reportedly skipped behind the Iron curtain earlier this year.

The Foreign Office disclosed Monday that Philby, a one time key man in Britain's Washington embassy, tipped off diplomats Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess police were on their tail in 1951.

The tip enabled Burgess and Maclean to escape to Russia in Moscow, Burgess denied Philby was the tip-off man.

What touched off the Laborite fire was the fact that in 1955 Macmillan, then Britain's foreign secretary, issued a statement saying Philby was in the clear.

Philby's time as a Foreign Office official—and reputed head of British Embassy security in Washington—was under the Labor party government headed by Earl Attlee, however.

Al hit on my neck with what he thought was a Judo chop, and I slapped his face.

Sir, I really didn't hit either of them hard, just sort of warned 'em. But did they have the simple decency to apologize? No, they started kicking and punching me, calling me names — punks like that!

I lost my head, showed them how a pro musclemen works. Grabbing Jimmy's precious hair I yanked his head almost off his narrow shoulders before busting his jaw with an overhand right, slugging him in the belly, cracking his ribs, letting him fall—a mess.

Since this Al loved to kick, I smashed his instep with my foot, broke his nose with a left, flattened him with a short right to his fresh mouth, knocking out some teeth. Don't know what I would have done if the cop hadn't come along.

Judge, that's my side of it. You understand: I simply can't stand violence.

All-Stars Will Play Tuesday

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco (AP)—A team selected for balance, not individual heroics, will represent the National League in Tuesday's All-Star baseball game. But Manager Alvin Dark had to throw out tradition to get the club he wants.

Dark's 17 selections, augmenting the eight starters selected by the players, were announced Thursday and failed to include three of eight men who finished second in player balloting.

"The second choices mean nothing," said the champion San Francisco Giants skipper. "I feel this is the strongest squad we have and we're going to Cleveland to win."

He omitted second choices Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati and second baseman Ken Hubbs of Chicago, and also passed up Jim Maloney, Cincinnati's 12-3 right-hander.

"The starting line-up will play most of the game," explained Dark. "So I picked the best club

I could form from a utility standpoint." He named eight pitchers, including four lefties, two catchers, four outfielders and three infielders.

Dark said he hopes to use no pitcher more than two innings "because it wouldn't be fair to their club." For that reason he also tried to avoid naming two pitchers from any team, though Los Angeles Dodgers Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale did make the squad.

"I also know some won't be able to pitch much because they're pitching Sunday," added Dark. This group is expected to include Foutax or Drysdale, San Francisco's Juan Marichal and Milwaukee's Warren Spahn. The latter two opposed each other for 16 innings Tuesday night.

With six right-handed hitters among his eight starters, exclusive of the pitcher, Dark selected a bevy of left-handed pinch-hitters including outfielders Stan Musial of St. Louis, Duke Snider of New York and the Giants' Willie McCovey.

"The chances are that Willie Mays and Hank Aaron will play all the way in the outfield," said Dark, "but I have Roberto Clemente (of Pittsburgh) who can play anywhere if I take an outfielder out." Los Angeles' Tommy Davis is the other outfield starter.

First baseman Bill White, second baseman Julian Javier and shortstop Dick Groat, all of St. Louis, probably will play most of the game, said Dark. Javier replaces Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski, who can't fulfill his starting assignment because of an injury.

"I named Orlando Cepeda (of the Giants) to have a right-handed pinch-hitter and Maury Wills (of the Dodgers) can play second, short or third and is a good pinch-runner." He also picked Ron Santo of Chicago to back up third baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals.

The other pitchers will be Ray Culp of Philadelphia, Larry Jackson of Chicago, Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole and Hal Woodeshick of Houston. Koufax, Spahn, O'Toole and Woodeshick are the left-handers.

Johnny Edwards of Cincinnati and Joe Torre of the Braves are the reserve catchers. Jim Duffalo of the Giants and Milwaukee's Bob Hendley will throw batting practice to Giants' coach and former catcher Wes Westrum.

Odds Favor the Yankees in American

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Past performances charts show the odds are 2-1 in favor of the club heading the American League field on July Fourth finishing first at the wire.

It's happened that way 41 times in the league's past 62 seasons. But chances are you'd have to give much better than 2-1 on the New York Yankees, who wound up the holiday halfway mark leading the race by 4½ lengths.

The Yanks were outsized choices to hang up their fourth straight pennant and 27th over-all at the outset of the season and by now must rate about the surest bet in baseball.

The Yankees picked up one-half game on the holiday program Thursday, even though they managed only a split with the Chicago White Sox. Behind left-hander Whitey Ford's pitching and a late-game scoring burst, they romped in the opener 9-1, winning their seventh straight and third in a row over Chicago—before dropping a 4-2 decision.

The Detroit Tigers put a double damper on hopeful Minnesota, beating the Twins 5-3 and 3-1; and Jerry Kindall hit key home runs as Cleveland set back Boston twice, 4-3 in 14 innings and 7-5.

The results moved the White Sox back into second, 4½ games behind the Yanks, dropped Minnesota into third, 5 games off the pace, and left fourth-place Boston 6½ games out.

In other AL action—Washington swept its first doubleheader of the year, 2-1 and 3-2 over Kansas City, with John Wyatt walking across the wimmin run in the opener and walking it across in the second game; and Baltimore completed a three-game sweep of Los Angeles, trimming the Angels 7-4.

The Los Angeles Dodgers turned the July Fourth corner with a 2½-game lead in the National League with a 10-7 victory over St. Louis. Also in the NL—Houston downed Cincinnati twice, 5-2 and 6-2; the Chicago Cubs swept the New York Mets, 2-1 and 3-0; Philadelphia took two from Pittsburgh, 1-0 in 10 innings and 5-1; and Milwaukee whipped San Francisco 6-3.

Ford, winning his ninth straight for a 13-3 record, struck out 12 and did not allow a runner past first base until the ninth inning. Elston Howard and Roger Maris homered for the Yanks.

Nellie Fox' first homer of the season with a man on in the sixth was the big hit in Chicago's second game victory. Juan Pizarro, 10-4 was the winner with strong relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm. Gary Peters of the White Sox and Bill Stafford of the Yanks were the losing pitchers.

The Tigers built early leads in both games in pinning the two losses on the Twins. Norm Cash's two-run single in the first inning and two more runs in the third gave Detroit all it needed in the opener, won by Phil Regan.

In the second game, the Tigers broke a 1-1 tie in the third on Rocky Colavito's double and singles by Bubba Phillips and George Thomas. Hank Aguirre turned in a six-hitter.

Jim Hall, Rich Rollins and John Goryl homered for the Twins, whose losing pitchers were Lee Stange and Jim Kaat.

Gary Bell allowed just one hit in five innings of relief in the first game at Cleveland and became a winner when Kindall socked the first pitch thrown by Hal Kistad in the bottom of the 14th for a homer. Fred Whitfield homered twice for the Indians' first three runs.

In the second game, Cleveland shattered at 2-2 tie against Chet Nichols with a four-run barrage. Jim Grant went all the way for the Indians although allowing 11 hits, including Red Sox homers by Carl Yastrzemski, Gary Geiger

Albritton holed his approach shot on the sixth for an eagle and then birdied 17 and 18 which proved to be the difference. The two closing birdies enabled them to squeeze by Henry Fenwick and Jack McClendon, who finished and Lu Clinton. Cleveland's Early Wynn pitched six shutout innings in the opener but was frustrated once more in his bid for a 300th big league victory.

In the second game, Cleveland shattered at 2-2 tie against Chet Nichols with a four-run barrage. Jim Grant went all the way for the Indians although allowing 11 hits, including Red Sox homers by Carl Yastrzemski, Gary Geiger

Bruce and Albritton Win Tourney

Larry Bruce, and Lawrence Albritton, formerly of Hope now living in Conroe, Texas, won the annual Fourth of July Four-Ball Golf Tournament yesterday at Hope Country Club. They fired a 3 under par 65 despite a double-bogey on the third hole.

Albritton holed his approach shot on the sixth for an eagle and then birdied 17 and 18 which proved to be the difference. The two closing birdies enabled them to squeeze by Henry Fenwick and Jack McClendon, who finished and Lu Clinton. Cleveland's Early Wynn pitched six shutout innings in the opener but was frustrated once more in his bid for a 300th big league victory.

In the second game, Cleveland shattered at 2-2 tie against Chet Nichols with a four-run barrage. Jim Grant went all the way for the Indians although allowing 11 hits, including Red Sox homers by Carl Yastrzemski, Gary Geiger

Dodgers Clip St. Louis in Final Game

By MIKE RATHNET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stop the music! The Los Angeles Dodgers just pulled the rug out from under that game of musical chairs the contenders have been playing in the National League.

The band stopped playing Thursday night when rookie Ken McMullen cracked a grand-slam homer that powered the first-place Dodgers to a 10-7 victory over second-place St. Louis and ballooned their bulge to 2½ games over the Cardinals.

Now, riding a sweep of the three-game series with St. Louis, a four-game winning streak and the momentum that has catapulted them from 2½ games behind to 2½ in front, the Dodgers have added strong odds to their line-up in the struggle for the NL pennant.

Since the turn of the century, the team leading the pack on July 4 has gone on to win the pennant 39 of 62 times. However, as the Dodgers know, they led at this point last year. San Francisco played in the World Series.

The Chicago Cubs took over third place three games back by beating the New York Mets 2-1 and 3-0 behind Glen Hobbie's two-hitter and Paul Tolt's three-hitter. Milwaukee dropped defending champion San Francisco into fourth-place by belting the Giants 6-3.

Houston shoved Cincinnati into fifth place with 5-2 and 6-2 victories over the Reds. Philadelphia swept a pair from Pittsburgh, 1-0 in 10 innings on Art Mahaffey's two-hitter and 5-1.

The New York Yankees ballooned their American League lead to 4½ games by splitting with Chicago, winning 9-1 before the White Sox captured the night-with 6-6. In the first flight Mitch Legrand and Johnny Graves beat Jim Smith and Johnny Cox on the second hole of a sudden death playoff.

Sammy Strong and Aubrey Albritton had little trouble in the second flight as they fired a 69. Strong had three birdies.

In the third flight Eddie Whitman and Lloyd Leverett played steady golf that was good enough to stave off a late rally by Cecil Delaney and Jack Gardner. Whitman and Leverett had a 74.

Floyd Leverett and Kent Daniels easily walked off with fourth flight honors by firing a 76, six strikes better than the next team.

Fred O. Ellis, Jr., and Forrest Hairr won the fifth flight by four strokes, as they shot an 80.

Sam Andrews and Albert Bray shot an 87 to nose out the team of Sidney Hollis and Ralph Routh by one stroke.

Charles Carver repeated as club driving champion by blasting a ball 296 yards. Sammy Strong was second with a poke of 294 yards.

Frank Carver won the pitch and putt contest in a playoff with Charles Carver and Mitch Legrand.

The Arkansas Congress of Parents and Teachers convened for the first time in 1925.

Travelers Split With Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Billy Smith notched a 4-0, seven inning no-hitter against Indianapolis in the nightcap of an International League baseball doubleheader Thursday night.

Norm Gigon's bases-loaded grand slam in the seventh climaxed, and ended, a pitching duel between 20-year-old Smith and Herb Score, who is without a win this season.

Indianapolis had taken the opener 11-2.

In other league play Columbus dropped Atlanta 5-1 in the first game of a doubleheader, but lost the second 4-5. Jacksonville won an opener 6-2 against Buffalo, then the Bisons took the nightcap 7-1; Syracuse took both ends of a doubleheader with Rochester, 2-0 and 4-1 and Toronto whipped Richmond 5-2 and 5-3.

Score had a one-hit shutout working into the seventh, which Lee opened with a dribbler down third base line for a hit.

Al Kenders' sacrifice attempt caught Score napping and he fumbled the ball, letting both runners on safe. Score walked Smith to fill the bases, then Gigon homered.

Indianapolis slammed seven home runs in the opener to overpower the Travelers.

Frank Kreutzer, earning his sixth victory against nine losses, lost a shutout bid with a bases-loaded walk in the seventh.

cap 4-2. Of the AL July 4 leaders, 41 of 62 have gone on to win the pennant.

Detroit whipped Minnesota 5-3 and 3-1, Cleveland defeated Boston 4-3 in 14 innings and 7-5, Washington edged Kansas City 2-1 and 3-2 and Baltimore took the Los Angeles Angels 7-4.

The Cardinals led 4-2 going into the sixth inning behind Ernie Broglio, 9-4, when McMullen, 21, supplied the fireworks. Before the inning was over, eight runs had poured in and the Cardinals, who came into Los Angeles with a one-half game lead, left with a five-game losing streak. Jim Gilliam shared hitting honors with McMullen, driving in four runs with a single and double as Ed Roebuck picked up the victory in relief.

The Cubs won the opener in the ninth against Roger Craig, 2-13, as Ernie Banks reached second on an error, took third on a wild pitch and scored on a wild throw by catcher Norm Sherry. Craig has lost 11 straight. The Cubs scored all their second game runs in the first inning on a two-run homer by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's solo shot.

Lee Maye cracked a homer and a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning as the Braves went on to whip the Giants, who had pulled into a tie on a two-run homer by Willie McCovey, his 20th. Hank Aaron also homered for Milwaukee, No. 24. Tony Cloninger was the winner with Bob Hendley's relief help.

Historic Washington Host to Arkansas Masonry on 4th

— Contax photos, Alex. H. Washburn; Masonic group taken by Dean Murphy, enlarged from a Polaroid.

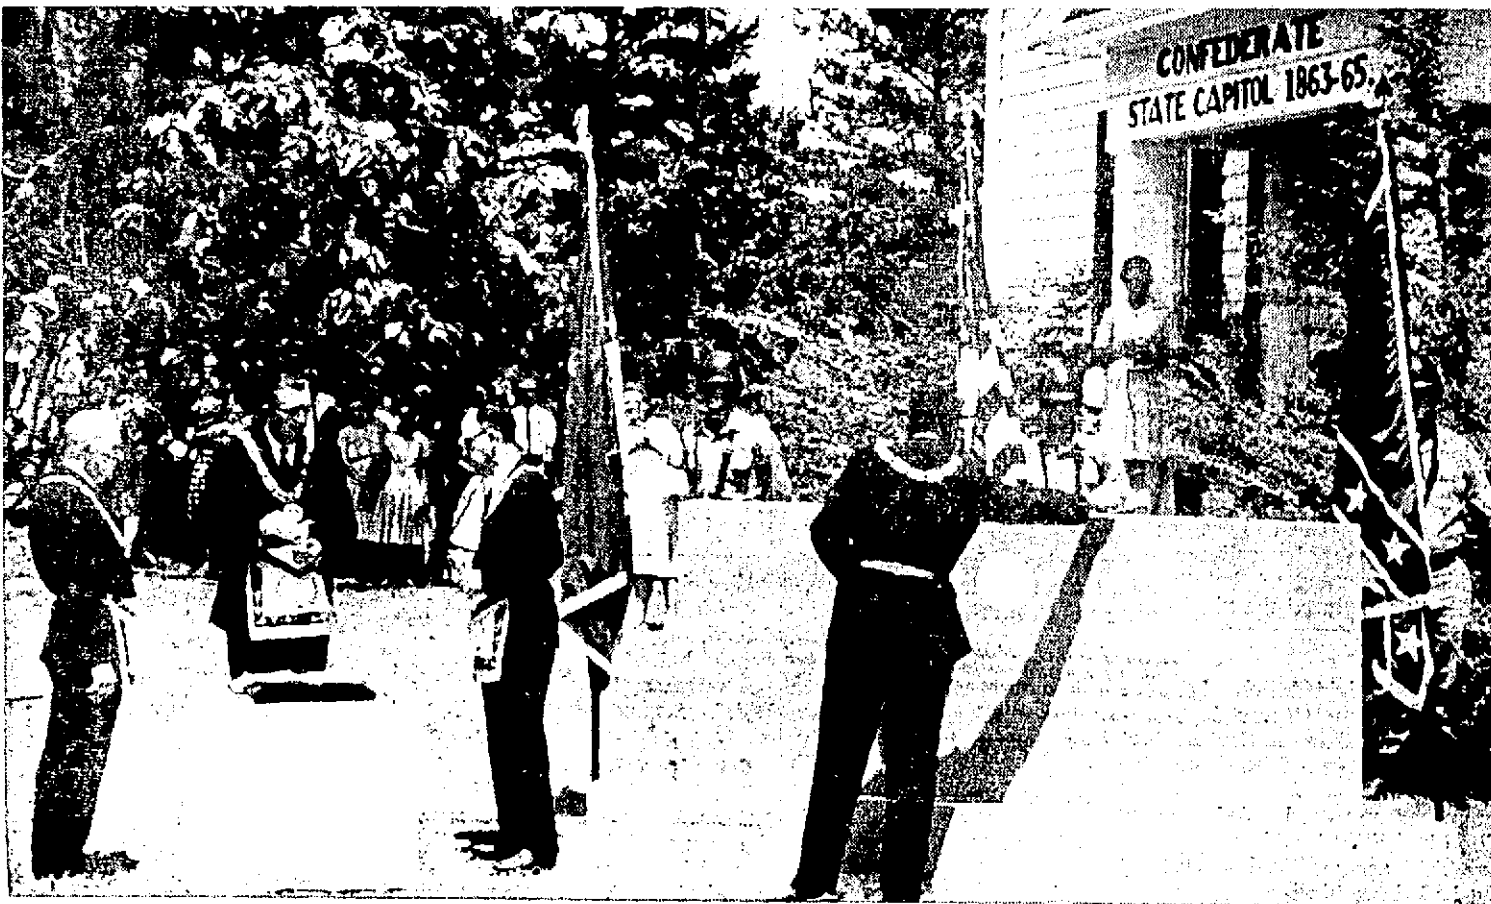

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO THE PRESSURE of Union troops forced the removal of the Arkansas state capitol from Little Rock to Washington, and with it went the headquarters of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas Masonry.

ON THIS FOURTH OF JULY THE GRAND Lodge commemorated that event by assembling in Washington and marching from the Old Tavern re-station four blocks to the preserved 1863 Confederate capitol, and there dedicating a cornerstone with the ancient Masonic ritual. The Grand Lodge was welcomed on behalf of Washington by Mayor William H. Etter.

THIS PICTURE SHOWS THE LINE OF MARCH from the Tavern, where it was formed by Dean Murphy of Hope, district deputy grand master.

AMONG THOSE WELCOMING THE GRAND Lodge were these ladies of Washington attired in frontier dress: Left to right — Mrs. W. H. Etter, Mrs. J. M. May, Mrs. F. C. Norwood, Mrs. Noelle

James, Mrs. Moss Rowe, Mrs. Gip Martin, Mrs. Paul Dudley, Mrs. A. M. Hulsey, Mrs. Pink Horton, and Mrs. Margaret May.

"FIRECRACKER" AND FRIEND. CLIMAX OF the 4th celebration in Washington was the giving away of a Shetland pony at 4 p.m. Boy in the picture, David Rowe, of Washington, didn't win "Firecracker" — but another Washington boy did: Carl Martin. The pony was a donation by Ray Turner and County Judge Orle Byers.

HOME TOWN MUSICAL TALENT WENT OVER big with the crowd during the morning. Here are Larry Keel, Washington native, at the electric organ; and Miss Bonnie Birdwell of Beaumont, Tex., granddaughter of Mrs. A. A. Keel of Washington, soloist.

Their appearance was arranged by Don Holcombe of Beaumont, native of Nashville, who appeared in Washington early, then left to visit relatives in Mineral Springs.
